STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

| 13. Tou must follow the histractions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervisi | on. |

ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

- 1. She shall observe the standard conditions of probation recommended by the United States Sentencing Commission and adopted by this Court.
- 2. She shall provide the Probation Officer access to any financial information upon request.
- 3. She shall participate in an approved mental health treatment program for evaluation and to determine if treatment is necessary. If deemed necessary, the treatment will be arranged by Probation Officer in consultation with the treatment provider; the modality, duration, and intensity of treatment will be based on the risks and needs identified. Defendant will contribute to the costs of those services, based on his ability to pay or the availability of payments by third parties.
- 4. She shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample, as directed by the Probation Officer, pursuant to the Revised DNA Collection Requirements, and Title 18, U.S. Code Section 3563(a)(9).
- 5. She shall submit herself and her property, house, residence, vehicles, papers, effects, computers and other electronic communications or data storage devices or media to a search, at any time, with or without a warrant, by a U.S. Probation Officer, and if necessary, with the assistance of any other law enforcement officer, but only in the lawful discharge of the supervision functions of the Probation Officer, who must have a reasonable suspicion of contraband, or of evidence of a violation of a condition of supervised release. The Probation Officer may seize any electronic communication or electronic device or medium which will be subject to further forensic investigation or analysis. Failure to submit to a search and seizure may be grounds for revocation of supervised release. The defendant shall warn any other resident or occupant that her premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
